Shot Show

It's just around the corner - January 15-18 in Las Vegas at the Sands Expo Center. With travel days included, most of the Wicked Edge crew will be gone for the show and only a skeleton crew will be working limited hours next week. We will be checking emails and phone messages as often as possible but I probably won't be able to participate in the forum much until I get back. Shot show is a very exciting annual event and if you're in Las Vegas next week attending, please come by the booth and see us. Here are the details: Shot Show

Hopefully you have a very successful show! I love doing trade shows! I can't wait until you guys get back so you can ship the WE Pro Pack 1 Kit I ordered yesterday.

Be safe!
